

RESTRICTION ORDER No. 2 OF THE HISTORICAL INSTITUTIONAL ABUSE REDRESS BOARD

Made pursuant to section 17 of the Historical Institutional Abuse (Northern Ireland) Act 2019

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS ORDER:

- a. This Order was made by the President of the Historical Institutional Abuse Redress Board (“the Board”) pursuant to section 17(1) of the Historical Institutional Abuse (Northern Ireland) Act 2019 (“the Act”).
- b. This Order was made because the President considers it necessary in the public interest, having regard in particular to the matters mentioned in section 17(4).
- c. This Order encompasses any and all material sent by the Redress Board to an applicant or other party (or to the legal representative of an applicant/other party) for the purpose of giving the applicant/other party the opportunity to comment or make written submissions, in advance of a Redress Board panel making its final determination. Such material may include statements, records, notes, reports, correspondence and any other documentation.
- d. This Order applies equally to any material provided to an applicant/other party (or to the legal representative of an applicant/other party) for the purposes of an appeal against the final determination of a Redress Board panel.
- e. This Order binds both the applicant/other party and the applicant/other party’s legal representative.

THE ORDER

1. No material which has been provided to an applicant or other party (or to the legal representative of an applicant/other party) by the Redress Board, in order to allow the applicant/other party the opportunity to comment or make legal submissions thereon, may be published in any way without the prior, written consent of the Redress Board.
2. The applicant/other party may not disclose such material to, nor discuss it with, anyone except for the applicant/other party’s designated legal representative or any medical expert instructed by the designated legal representative, without the prior written consent of the Redress Board.
